

HOMECOMING CO-CHAIRMEN Nancy Wagner and Bob Wheeler have planned a fun-packed week-end for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Theme for the celebration is "Karnival Kicks in '56."

Homecoming Dance 'Festival' Offers Masks, Merriment

"Festival," the 1956 Homecoming ball, will be held in the CPS Fieldhouse from 9 p.m. until midnight Saturday. Co-chairmen Warren Wotton and Marilyn Dow have announced.

Admission to the dance, traditional climax of Homecoming activities, is $2.25 a couple. Couples will dance to

IRC to Join United Nations Observance

The International Relations club will participate in Tacoma's observance of United Nations Day, "The Festival of Nations," Wednesday. The club will be in charge of the American Association of the United Nations booth from 7:30 to 10 p.m. at the Crystal ballroom of the Winthrop hotel.

IRC, the only CPS organization represented in the festival, will attend as a group, with Jere Pennell and Dave Corner acting as masters of ceremonies for the program. The festival is open to the public.

The club will hold a Halloween party Nov. 3. Sondra Einfeldt and Carl Mulvihill are co-chairmen for the affair.

the music of Bob Harvey and his Harvey Boys, a 12-piece Seattle band. Proper attire is tuxedos or suits for men and formals for women.

Carrying out the theme of "Festival," each woman will wear a decorated mask for the first half of the dance. Each girl will make her own mask covering the eyes, and an impartial judge will circulate through the crowd. During intermission, a prize from one of Tacoma's women's shops will be awarded to the girl judged to have the best and most beautiful mask.

In charge of decorations for the dance are Warren Brown and Eloise Engbretson. Publicity chairman is Jane White, and entertainment chairman is Elva Straw. Co-chairmen for programs are Marilyn Wotton and Lou Ann Paulsen.

Homecoming to Start Thursday

Promising fun and excitement for students and alumni, CPS Homecoming activities are scheduled to open with the Big Top Hop, an informal mixer in the women's gym, at 2:30 p.m. Thursday. Keynoted by the theme "Karnival Kicks in '56," this year's Homecoming celebration is coordinated by Nancy Wagner and Bob Wheeler.

Homecoming buttons, costing $.15 for one and $.25 for two, will remain on sale in the SUB through Friday, according to button sale co-chairmen Bob Roe and Jan Stapleton.

The CPS male judged to have the best beard will reign over the festivities as Homecoming king. Judging of the beard-growing contest will take place at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, during intermission of the Big Top Hop. Awards will also be made for the most outstanding, best trimmed, scraggiest, reddest and longest beards, contest co-chairmen Don Moller and Sandra Webber report.

Coronation of the Homecoming queen, chosen by CPS males, will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in Jones hall auditorium, immediately preceding the first presentation of the Homecoming play. Candidates are Elva Straw, Jane Andre, Jeanne Bulatao, Eleanor Snyder and Susan Ellertson.

A torch parade, which will visit fraternity and sorority house decorations, will begin at 10:15 p.m. Friday following the Homecoming play, co-chairmen Marv Matson and Marlene Buck said. After the parade a bonfire rally and fireworks display will be held, and free hot dogs will be given everyone wearing a Homecoming button.

Listed below is the complete schedule of Homecoming events:

Thursday:

2:30 p.m.—Big Top Hop in women's gym.

3:30 p.m.—Beard-judging.

8 p.m.—Coronation of Homecoming queen followed by first presentation of Homecoming play, Jones hall auditorium.

Library Reports Increase in Use

The number of students using the library in the evenings is up by about 50 per cent over last year, Librarian Warren Perry reports. Record attendance so far this year is 158, he added.

Attendance at the library is checked every evening at 7:30 and 9:30, he explained. The number of students at 7:30 p.m. is generally greater than at 9:30 p.m.

Library circulation is up by about 10 per cent over this period last year, Perry added.

The conclusion, according to Perry, is that students are studying more. "We aren't complaining in the least about the increased attendance," he commented. "In fact, we are proud of it."

Total Registration Hits 1,855; 13 More Than Last Year

Registration figures for 1956 show a gain of 13 students thus far over last year's total with new registrations still coming in, Registrar Dick Smith reports.

The freshman class showed a loss of 150 students this year in comparison to last year's total. Smith attributed this to the loss of part-time students. In 1955 the total number of full-time freshmen was 422. This fall there are 462 full-time frosh, showing an increase of 40 full-time students. There were 268 part-time freshmen last year and only 78 this year making a loss of 190 part-time frosh.

The sophomore tabulation showed a loss of nine students. The juniors gained 54 students, and the seniors gained 44.

There are 826 men registered for a full-time schedule this year and 507 full-time women students, showing a gain of 16 males and 48 females over 1955.

Listed below are the figures on full and part-time students for 1956:

Freshmen	540
Sophomores	382
Juniors	283
Seniors	245
Graduates	146
Specials	213
Nurses	46

TOTAL 1,855

This list is not yet complete because new registrations are still coming in, Smith said.

'Arsenic and Old Lace,' Featuring Deranged Family of Maniacs, to Treat CPS Playgoers

By LIZ PATTERSON

If someone offers you a glass of elderberry wine during Homecoming, you'd better think twice before accepting. It may be one of the Brewster sisters, main characters in the Homecoming play to be presented Thursday and Friday at 8 p.m. in Jones hall auditorium.

This year's Homecoming play fairly drips with hilarious homicide as the Campus Playcrafters present "Arsenic and Old Lace." It's the story of how two sweet elderly Brooklyn spinsters, Abby and Martha Brewster, portrayed by Jeanette Wilson and Sally Marshall, have taken to putting lonely old men out of their loneliness with a delicate mixture of arsenic and elderberry wine.

A slightly deranged nephew (Scott Strode), who is certain he is Teddy Roosevelt, loyally buries his aunts' victims in the cellar, which he is also certain is the Panama Canal.

The cadavers really pile up in the basement when Jonathan (John Sherwood), another homicidal Brewster, returns home from his visit to the asylum to see if he can't top his aunt's record. Aided by a derelict plastic surgeon in the person of Cecil Bell, a real contest ensues to decide which side of the Brewster family can plant the most guests along the banks of the "Panama."

The production staff consists of Scott Strode, student dramatic manager; Jaclyn Carmichael, Sigrid Arntson, Fred Breidenbach, John Mitchell, Joe Diamond, Nancy Woodruff, Gary Larson, Rosalind Bulatao, Rusty Barber, Tom Roach, George Swayze, Ross Trunkay, Colleen Laing, Katherine Morely, Barbara Keevil, Sharleen Kirkpatrick, Lynne Smith, Liz Patterson, Barbara Munsen and Matthew Clapp. The play is under the direction of Martha Pearl Jones and Wilbur Baisinger.

Eisenhower Draws More Than 6,000 In CPS Visit; Compliments Gridders

President Dwight Eisenhower's visit to CPS Thursday drew more than 6,000 people—one of the largest crowds in the history of the Fieldhouse, Fieldhouse Manager Ted Droetboom said. The college made the facilities available to the committee arranging the president's visit.

Student groups taking part in the Republican rally included Spurs and Knights, who ushered, the CPS band, and campus Young Republicans, who distributed campaign literature.

Eisenhower prefaced his remarks on education by citing the undefeated record of CPS's football team. To the Trail's knowledge, this year's Loggers are the first team in CPS history to receive a presidential compliment.

You know it already, of course, but this week-end is Homecoming. The Trail has no intention of slobbering a high-schoolish hurrah about school spirit. But from a practical and mercenary standpoint, CPS students owe it to themselves to support and take advantage of Homecoming activities.

First of all, a lot of people have spent a lot of time planning and organizing Homecoming events. To let that effort be wasted would be rather silly. Second, whether you take part or not, your money is being spent. Through the Associated Students, you have already paid the bills for Homecoming.

So, if you are one of the rare individuals who does nothing just for the fun of it, at least support "Karnival Kicks in '56" to get your money's worth.

so you don't need $5,000 . . .

On September 25, you may recall, the Trail carried a full-page advertisement announcing a $41,000 Reader's Digest contest for college students and faculty members. The contest is simple—just pick the six articles in the October Reader's Digest that you think readers will like best.

Maybe the contest rules are too difficult for student minds to comprehend. Or maybe CPS students just aren't interested in winning up to $5,000 for themselves and a $5,000 scholarship fund for their college. At any rate, the Trail has received a telegram from the Reader's Digest indicating that response from CPS has been, to say the least, not phenomenal.

There still is time to pick up an entry blank at the college book store. But don't put it off; the contest closes Thursday. Why not spend five minutes of your valuable time to see if you can bring some of that prize money home to CPS?

Social Events Need Student Affairs Committee Approval

All student social functions must be cleared through Student Affairs committee to avoid conflicts on the social calendar, ASCPS Second Vice President Spencer Stokes emphasizes.

"Illegal scheduling of social events without the consent of the committee could lead to loss of social privileges by an entire group," Stokes stressed.

Turn In at Switchboard

Student Affairs committee rules read: "Applications, complete with signatures of faculty guests, for all social events must be submitted in duplicate to the Student Affairs committee mailbox at the college switchboard in Jones hall, allowing the proper time interval."

Petitions must be turned in 10 days in advance for picnics, cruises, all-college dances, dinner dances, pledge dances and semi-formal and formal dances. Only five days advance notice is required for firesides, Christmas parties, pledge sneaks, banquets involving only one group and mixers involving only two groups.

Meets Tuesday Noons

The committee, which meets every Tuesday noon in the Dean of Women's office, considers and approves or disapproves each application. The committee consists of Stokes, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Swayze, executive secretary; Rusty Barber, Carol Beeken, Dr. Raymond Powell, Shelly Gerarden and Dr. John Phillips.

According to a constitutional amendment passed last spring, the ASCPS second vice president is chairman of Student Affairs committee. Previously the Dean of Women had held the post.

The Letter Box

Tudor Asks Political Club

May I express my appreciation for your editorial urging students to interest themselves in political and civic affairs. It is encouraging that our students are now actually organizing on the campus and interesting themselves in the different party headquarters downtown.

The development of an articulate and permanent public policy association takes time. I hope that the students will be patient. It is my hope that the Republicans, Democrats, volunteers for Stevenson and citizens for Eisenhower will not allow their current interest to vanish once the election is over.

Cooperation Needed

While the present campaign does provide immediate motivation, the success of each of the groups depends on their willingness to work together after the election is over as well as to cooperate with each other now in matters of mutual interest. Certainly, after the election is decided, the emphasis of a public affairs group should not be on the enrollment of partisans, but rather the development of knowledge about public policies, non-partisan as well as partisan, local as well as national.

Foundation May Help

There is now in existence a foundation which is specifically interested in a movement to encourage college students to plan actual political careers while they are in college. This foundation gives small sums of money to campus groups organized for this purpose. Practically every public and private school of higher learning in Washington, Oregon and Idaho has such a group.

These groups hold workshops on their local campuses, hold occasional regional and state meetings and actually work in the field of politics under faculty sponsorship and guidance. It is my hope that we can establish such a group on the CPS campus after Nov. 6, 1956. Sincerely yours, HUGH J. TUDOR, professor of political science.

Todd Hall Names Martin President

Tom Martin, a senior majoring in pre-theology, was named president of Todd Hall recently at an election held by the residents of the dorm. Martin's cabinet of officers include Bob Kinch, vice president; Ralph Franklin, secretary; and Darryl Johnson, treasurer.

Men who were chosen by their respective floors as representatives to the executive council are Tom Roach, Mel Henry, Roger Sprague and Mike Mertens.

The organization has announced a tentative schedule of activities which include plans to decorate the dorm for the Homecoming celebration. Co-chairmen for the decorating committee are Jim Skinner and John Olsen. Also on the agenda is a inter-dorm banquet; the second of the year, which will be held Wednesday.

Toni Warner Shatters Tradition as First CPS Coed in Air Force ROTC

Toni Warner, sophomore from Juneau, Alaska, has set a new precedent by being the first girl to take Air Force ROTC at CPS.

Since Miss Warner was practically "born with a gun in her hand," her main objective in air science is to obtain a place on the rifle team. She received her first gun, a .22, when she was in the sixth grade. She was an outstanding member of the Juneau Rifle and Pistol club and received distinguished honors in high school.

Miss Warner, enrolled in air science 101, is not required to wear a uniform or to stand at attention. She is majoring in business administration and hopes to continue her shooting throughout college.

Twelve More Pledge CPS Fraternities

Twelve new men have pledged CPS fraternities, bringing the snap-bidding total to 27. Dr. Raymond Powell, dean of the men, disclosed that snap-bidding will end at mid-semester.

New pledges of Sigma Chi are Allen Reinhart and Herb Wilson.

Those who pledged Sigma Nu are Tom Havel, Richard Miller, Richard Waterman, Bill Whinery, John Wilson and Don Cooley.

Sherrel Chadwick and Donald Johnson are new Theta Chi pledges.

Intercollegiate Knights Select Three Pages

Three Knight pages were chosen at the last meeting of Intercollegiate Knights, sophomore honorary for men. The new Knights are Roland Clark, Seattle; Warren Hall, Tacoma; John Sherwood, Seattle.

Loggers Near Grid Title

Host UBC Here Saturday

By RON FRANK

Coach John Heinrich's footballers neared the Evergreen conference championship during the last two weeks of action as they blanked Whitworth 19-0 two weeks ago and rallied to beat Central's Wildcats 20-12 last Saturday at the campus field.

The Loggers can clinch at least a tie for the title Saturday when they meet the University of British Columbia Thunderbirds in the annual Homecoming game at 2 p.m. on home gridiron.

Eastern Aids Cause

Eastern Washington gave the Loggers their Saturday opportunity when they trounced Pacific Lutheran 27-7 at Lincoln Bowl while the CPS eleven was coming from behind to beat Central. The win Saturday gave the Logger forces a 4-0 record in league play and the commanding lead. In the other result over the week-end the Pirates beat the Thunderbirds 21-13.

The Loggers spotted Central two touchdowns in the first half before coming alive in the last two periods to score three touchdowns. Central back, Denny Driscoll raced 40 yards on a pass interception to give the Wildcats their first score. In the second quarter a CPS fumble gave the 'Cats the ball on the CPS 24. Six plays later Bud Snaza went one yard for the score.

Mitchell Recovers

It was the Loggers turn in the second half to take advantage of a fumble. On the first rushing play of the second half, Bob Mitchell recovered on the Central 33. Bob Austin, Logger fullback, bombed through to pay dirt from three yards out. Parsons converted. Quarterback Dick Jarvis's passes to Larry Kelly for 40 yards and to Bob Austin for 10 yards accounted for the other Logger scores.

Against the Whitworth Pirates CPS scored three times in the first half to win the game.

Frankly Speaking

With Ron Frank

College of Puget Sound's winning football team proved its merit Saturday against Central's Wildcats at the CPS athletic field. The Loggers on a rain-and-wind-swept field came from a 12 point deficit to beat the Ellensburg collegians 20-12.

The ability to come from behind is a trade-mark of great football teams. Central, scoring both of their touchdowns on breaks and playing inspired ball, looked like they were going to spoil the Loggers' hopes for an undefeated season. Led by the slick field generaling of Dick Jarvis in the second half, the Loggers scored three times to please the home crowd.

With the weather conditions very good, the game in some aspects reminded me of the last game of the season with PEC. The Loggers seemed shaken in that tilt when the Lutes scored so quickly. Coach John Heinrich's eleven Saturday showed more determination when the game looked its blackest.

* * *

Personal Observations: With a Homecoming game victory over the University of British Columbia an almost cinch unless the Loggers suffer from over-confidence Saturday, the Loggers will clinch at least a tie for the championship. . . . (Dick Jarvis has no peer in the Evergreen conference at quarterback and that includes the Lutes' Tommy Gilmur.) . . . Newly transplanted end Herby Richey plays the position like he owns it and has tremendous ability in grabbing passes. . . . Eastern Washington's Savages will be out for murder when they meet their arch rivals, Whitworth, in a couple of weeks. Poor Whitworth, the whole conference wants their crack at the sagging band of Buccaneers. . . . The game with Pacific Lutheran Nov. 10 is assuming tremendous proportions.

Kappa Sig, Sigma Nu Take Intramural Lead

Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu sport unbeaten records after the first two weeks of play in the intramural football program. The Kappa Sigs have won four straight and the Sigma Nus have won both contests in their only two outings.

Kappa Sig has rolled over Phi Delta Theta, Theta Chi, SAE and won a forfeit from Sigma Chi. Sigma Nu boasts victories over the Phi Deltas and Theta Chi. Both squads have won easily thus far and their game two weeks hence will probably be for the championship.

The schedule for games this week includes Tuesday, ROTC-Sigma Chi; Kappa Sigma-Todd Hall, and Sigma Nu - SAE. Thursday, ROTC-Phi Delta Theta, SAE-Todd Hall and Theta Chi-Sigma Chi.

Forest Service Permit for Buyer Only Obstacle to Deep Creek Sale

Barring unforeseen obstacles, the sale of Deep Creek should be completed in the very near future, a spokesman for Central Board told the Trail.

Ron Usher, ASCPS first vice-president, said the contract of terms for the transaction is in the hands of the buyers for consideration and "we expect it back signed anytime." The William McMahon family of Vashon Island is the prospective buyer, Usher said.

The student body officer, who has handled the controversial sale for much of this year, pointed out one problem which has yet to be completely cleared up. Although the Forest Service has sanctioned the selling of the CPS Deep Creek assets, the McMahon family has not yet been granted a permit to operate the area. This delay is presumed to be due to Park Service regulations pertaining to a case of this nature which has not been duly cleared.

As soon as the contract is returned signed the Deep Creek assets will be considered sold. However Usher went on to say that "should the Service reject the McMahon's request for a permit, then the contract would be invalidated."

Class Broadcasts Homecoming Show

Tacomans will get their first chance to hear a production of the CPS radio and television class Tuesday at 7:15 p.m. over radio station KTAC. "The program will be a special 20-minute Homecoming broadcast," according to Nina Ellington, AS CPS publicity coordinator.

Master of ceremonies Rusty Barber will give a short introduction of the theme "Karnival Kicks in '56," and remind listeners that CPS's annual Homecoming festivities will begin Thursday and continue through Saturday.

Wheeler to Speak

Homecoming Co - chairman Bob Wheeler will describe the beard-growing contest and how the Homecoming king will be chosen at the Soc Hop Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the girl's gym.

Jeanette Wilson will tell about the fraternity and sorority house decorations, the torch parade, and the open house which will virtually throw open every door on campus to the alums and visitors on campus.

To Invite Alums

Alumni representatives Chas. Zittel will invite old grads to the alumni banquet to be held Saturday before the game in the girl's gym.

Dance co-chairman Warren Wotton will talk about Homecoming dance to be held Saturday from 9-12 p.m. in the Fieldhouse.

Last on the program Coach John Heinrich will be interviewed by Ed Bowman. They will talk about the CPS-University of British Columbia football game which will start at 2 p.m. on the Logger field.

Mackey, Kuller Head Planning For Sadie Hawkins Dance

Preparations are being made for the annual Sadie Hawkins dance which will be held Nov. 10 in the girls' gym. Co-chairmen of the affair are Kathy Kuller and Steve Mackey. They will be assisted by Indee co - social chairmen Gerry Frick and Eileen Kurth.

The all-school dance, sponsored by the Independents, will feature informal Dogpatch garb, Fraternities and sororities and the Independents will nominate candidates for the titles of "L'il Abner" and "Daisy Mae."

The Sadie Hawkins dance committee hopes to introduce something new into this year's dance, Mackey said.
